Term 3 - the students will begin to learn from the Health and Physical Education curriculum. Sexuality and relationship education is one of seven key areas of learning in the HPE learning area of the New Zealand Curriculum.

The seven key areas of learning are:

- mental health
- sexuality education
- food and nutrition
- body care and physical safety
- physical activity
- sport studies
- outdoor education.

These are the topics that we will be covering next term.

Working together: Making our class a great place to be

Overarching question: How can I help make my classroom a happy and positive place for everyone to learn?

Me and other people: Making friends

Overarching question: How can I have friendships that are happy and healthy?

Me and other people: Standing up for myself and others

Overarching question: What is bullying and what can we do about it?

Me and my body: Growing and changing

Overarching question: How does my body grow and change as I get older?

Me and my body: Keeping my body clean

Overarching question: How can I keep my body clean and why do I need to?

Me and my body: Being responsible for my body

Overarching question: What does it mean to be responsible for my body?

Me and other people: Our families – the same and different

Overarching question: How is my family the same as, and different from, other families?

Me and other people: Challenging gender expectations

Overarching question: Are some things just for boys and others just for girls?

Me and my community: Who can help?

Overarching question: Where can my family and I get help to keep well?

Please contact me if you have any questions about this learning.
